

Keynote Speakers:

The Honorable Margaret Norrie McCain O.C., O.N.B., B.A. (Hon.), B.S.W

Topic: An Evaluation Story: Being a Game Changer

Margaret Norrie McCain is a Canadian philanthropist, the 27th and first female Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, and founder of the Margaret and Wallace McCain Family Foundation.

Anne Sherman, BSc, B.Ed., M.Ed., Ph.D.

Topic: Making a Difference in Policy and Practice: The Role of Evaluation

Dr. Anne Sherman, Dean of the Faculty of Education at UNB, is a recognized national expert and researcher in the field of early childhood education.

Concurrent Sessions and Posters:

Two sets of concurrent sessions will be offered and space will be provided for those participants wishing to display poster presentations.

To submit a proposal for a workshop or poster presentation, please complete the Call for Proposals and Poster Presentations and the General Registration Form (see attached) by October 15, 2014, and send by e-mail to one of the conference co-chairs: Dr. Bill Morrison at wmorriso@unb.ca or Brenda Stead, M.Ed., CC, CE, at steadconsultants@gmail.com.

Registration:

To register for the conference, please complete the General Registration Form (see attached) by October 30, 2014.